

WELCOME ROCK TRAILS

Follow the Welcome Rock Trails sign turning off State Highway 6 and follow the Nevis Road for 8kms until you get to the Southland Ski Hut/Start of the Roaring Lion Trail.

EYRE MOUNTAINS

QUEENSTOWN

NEVIS VALLEY

NOKOMAI VALLEY

MATAURA VALLEY

SKI HUT
The Roaring Lion Trail start/finish 27km loop. (Biking anti-clockwise only)

WELCOME ROCK & SLATE HUT
The highest point of the trail at 1,130m on the Slate Range. Nearby is a four person hut and outdoor bath.

LEE LUM'S DERELICT SOD HUT
Remains of the Chinese raceman Lee Lum's earth hut - the location of his demise.

THE RED SHED
A renovated wool shed, sleeps two, self catering small studio, located near the homestead.

ROARING LION WATER RACE
The historic water race starts with views into the Nokomai Goldfield.

THE MUD HUT
Restored water racemans hut sleeping four, with an open fire and outdoor bath.

THE FLUMINGS
Trail passes rustic pipes used to divert water through an active slip face.

GARSTON
107 km Garston to Te Anau
Blackmore Rd

64 km
Garston to Queenstown
Nevis Rd

START / FINISH
0 kms / 27 kms

19.5 kms
16.5 kms
14.5 kms
13 kms

2.5 kms
10.5 kms

9 kms

7.5 kms

Photo stop 1

Photo stop 2 & 3

Photo stop 5

Photo stop 4

McLean Rd

PHOTO STOPS AT WELCOME ROCK

Our location is pretty breathtaking, so while you're peddling or walking take a moment for a breather and appreciate the amazing scenery. There are plenty of spots to stop and take photos but we've marked a few of our favourites in the map above. Come up to Welcome Rock and find your favourite view. Don't forget to share #welcomerocknz

1 View from the Ski Hut

2 The famous Welcome Rock

3 View from the Slate Hut

4 The Mud Hut

5 The Flumings